Shri Ashish Shrivastava, counsel for the petitioners.

Shri Vinod Deshmukh, counsel for respondents.

Shri Deshmukh counsel for the respondents submits that the L.T.C. which was withdrawn by the respondents has been restored by order dated 20.3.2002. The said document has been filed in connected matter (W.P.No.1119/2001) alongwith Application (I.A.No.1884/2002) and the statement made in that application is also applicable to this writ petition . Para 2 of the said application is relevant here and quoted below:

> "That by O.M.No.CIL/C-5B/IR/LTC/SECT/1219, dated 20.3.2002 the respondent no.1 Coal India has restored the facility of L.T.C. to the employees of the C.I.L. and its subsidiary companies. That respondent no.2 is an subsidiary of Coal India Ltd., as such facility of L.T.C. to its employees have now been restored. Copy of the O.M. restoring the facility of L.T.C. is filed herein as Document (Annexure A)."

Shri Deshmukh submits that since the reliefs claimed by the petitioners have been granted, this petition has become infructuous. The above statement is recorded.

Accordingly, this petition is disposed of.
